PETITION UNDER 37 C.F.R. § 1.47

Sir:

The above-captioned utility application was filed 2 January 2001 on behalf of joint inventors Wei-Ping LI, Hai-Quan MAO, and Kam W. LEONG. Pursuant to 37 C.F.R. § 1.47, for the reasons set forth below, the Declaration filed herewith is executed only by Wei-Ping LI and Hai-Quan MAO.

Dr. Kam Leong's last known home address is:

Kam Leong, Ph.D.
10242 Breconshire Rd.
Ellicott City, MD 21042.

Although Dr. Leong has signed a Power of Attorney for the above-captioned application, all efforts obtain Dr. Leong's signature on the Declaration filed herewith have been unsuccessful.

On or about 12 March 2001, Scott Bluni, Patent Counsel for Boston Scientific Corporation (BSC)<sup>1</sup> visited Dr. Leong at his place of business and requested him to sign (1) Powers of Attorney for the above-captioned application and the corresponding international (PCT) application, (2) a Declaration For Utility or Design Application for the above-captioned application, and (3) an Assignment of the above-captioned application to Scimed, all of which documents were provided to Dr. Leong by Scott Bluni.

Kenyon & Kenyon received Powers of Attorney executed by Dr. Leong on 15 March 2001. However, no Declaration executed by Dr. Leong was received in conjunction with these Powers, or at any time thereafter.

On 1 August 2001, Cathleen K. Dyer, Legal Assistant to Scott Bluni, forwarded to Dr. Leong's home address (1) Powers of Attorney for the above-captioned application and the corresponding international (PCT) application, (2) a Declaration For Utility or Design Application for the above-captioned application, and (3) an Assignment of the above-captioned application to Scimed. An electronic mail message from FedEx indicates that the package was delivered and signed for. The documents forwarded by Cathleen K. Dyer differed from those documents brought to Dr. Leong by Scott Bluni in that Dr. Li's name was spelled incorrectly in the documents personally delivered by Scott Bluni.

On 13 September 2001, two voice mail messages were left at Dr. Leong's business telephone number. A message was also sent to Dr. Leong via electronic mail. This message requested that he execute the Declaration and Assignment and forward them to Jennifer King at Kenyon & Kenyon.

On 14 September 2001, electronic mail message from Dr. Leong was received. The message stated that he was in Singapore and that he had previously signed and sent documents. The message also provided a facsimile number.

On 14 September 2001, a second electronic mail message was sent to Dr. Leong, repeating the request that he sign the needed Declaration and Assignment and forward them to Jennifer King at Kenyon & Kenyon. Shortly thereafter, copies of the unexecuted Declaration and Assignment were forwarded to the facsimile number provided in Dr. Leong's electronic mail message of 14 September 2001.

No response to the facsimile or electronic mail messages of 14 September 2001 was received. No Declaration executed by Dr. Leong was received.

Accordingly, the above-captioned application is made by inventors Wei-Ping LI and Hai-Quan MAO on behalf of themselves and Kam W. LEONG.

As evidence of the effort to obtain an executed Declaration from Dr. Leong, the Applicants submit herewith copies of the following documents:

1. Copies of an Assignment of the above-captioned patent application to Scimed, signed by Wei-Ping LI and Hai-Quan MAO. Exhibits A and B.
2. Powers of Attorney executed by Dr. Leong. Exhibits C and D.
3. A copy of the cover letter under which Cathleen K. Dyer forwarded the Declaration and other unexecuted documents to Dr. Leong's home address, the shipping label of the package containing these documents, and an electronic mail message from FedEx, indicating that the package was delivered and signed for. Exhibit E.
4. An electronic mail message to Dr. Leong, requesting that he execute the Declaration and Assignment and forward them to Jennifer King at Kenyon & Kenyon. Exhibit F.
5. An electronic mail message from Dr. Leong stating that he was in Singapore and that he had previously signed and sent documents. Exhibit G.
6. A second electronic mail message to Dr. Leong, repeating the request that he sign the needed Declaration and Assignment and forward them to Jennifer King at Kenyon & Kenyon. Exhibit H.
7. Cover page and copies of the unexecuted Declaration and Assignment as forwarded to the facsimile number provided in Dr. Leong's electronic mail message of 14 September 2001. Exhibit I.
8. Declaration by Jennifer L. King.

The Commissioner is hereby authorized to charge the $130.00 fee required by 37

C.F.R. § 1.17(h) to Deposit Account 11-0600. A duplicate copy of this paper is attached for that purpose. The Commissioner is further authorized to charge any additional fees, or credit any overpayments, arising from this Petition to that same account.

The Applicants invite the Examiner to contact the undersigned to discuss any matter concerning this application.

Respectfully submitted

OFFICE OF PETITIONS

DECLARATION BY JENNIFER L. KING
IN SUPPORT OF PETITION UNDER 37 C.F.R. § 1.47

I, Jennifer L. King, hereby declare the following:

1. I am a patent attorney with the law firm of Kenyon & Kenyon.
2. I am the responsible attorney at Kenyon & Kenyon for U.S. Patent Application 09/750,779, filed 2 January 2001.
3. The last known home address for Dr. Kam Leong, an inventor of U.S. Patent Application 09/750,779, is:

Kam Leong, Ph.D.
10242 Breconshire Rd.
Ellicott City, MD 21042.

4. Upon information and belief, on or about 12 March 2001, Scott Bluni, Patent Counsel for Boston Scientific Corporation (BSC)<sup>1</sup> visited Dr. Leong at his place of business and requested him to sign (1) Powers of Attorney for the above-captioned application and the corresponding international (PCT) application, (2) a Declaration For Utility or Design Application for the above-captioned application, and (3) an Assignment of the abovecaptioned application to Scimed, all of which documents were provided to Dr. Leong by Scott Bluni. Upon information and belief, Dr. Leong agreed to execute the documents and return them to BSC or directly to Kenyon & Kenyon.

5. Kenyon & Kenyon received Powers of Attorney executed by Dr. Leong on 15 March 2001. Exhibits C and D. No Declaration executed by Dr. Leong was received by me in conjunction with these Powers, or at any time thereafter. Upon information and belief, no Declaration executed by Dr. Leong was received by Kenyon & Kenyon or by BSC in conjunction with these Powers, or at any time thereafter.

6. Upon information and belief, on 1 August 2001, Cathleen K. Dyer, Legal Assistant to Scott Bluni, forwarded to Dr. Leong's home address (1) Powers of Attorney for the above-captioned application and the corresponding international (PCT) application, (2) a Declaration For Utility or Design Application for the above-captioned application, and (3) an Assignment of the above-captioned application to Scimed. A copy of the cover letter, the shipping label of the package containing these documents, and an electronic mail message from FedEx, indicating that the package was delivered and signed for, are provided herewith. Exhibit E. The documents forwarded by Cathleen K. Dyer differed from those documents brought to Dr. Leong by Scott Bluni in that Dr. Li's name was spelled incorrectly in the documents personally delivered by Scott Bluni.

7. On 13 September 2001, I left two voice mail messages at Dr. Leong's business telephone number. I also sent a message to Dr. Leong via electronic mail, requesting that he execute the Declaration and Assignment and forward them to me. Exhibit F.

8. On 14 September 2001, I received an electronic mail reply from Dr. Leong, stating that he was in Singapore and that he had previously signed and sent documents and providing a facsimile number. Exhibit G.

9. On 14 September 2001, I sent another electronic mail message to Dr. Leong, repeating my request that he sign the needed Declaration and Assignment and forward them to me. I then forwarded copies of the unexecuted Declaration and Assignment to the facsimile number provided in Dr. Leong's electronic mail message of 14 September 2001. Exhibits H and I.

10. I have received no response to my facsimile or electronic mail message of 14 September 2001.

11. No Declaration executed by Dr. Leong was received by me. Upon information and belief, no Declaration executed by Dr. Leong was received by Kenyon & Kenyon or by BSC.

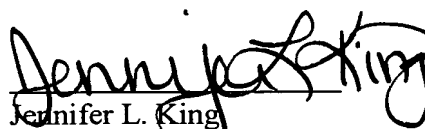

12. Accordingly, I believe that Dr. Leong is an unavailable inventor under C.F.R. §1.47(a).

I, Jennifer L. King declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issued thereon.

Dear Jennifer:

I am dismayed to see that the miscommunication continues. I don't know what other signatures are missing now, because I have signed and sent in mine previously. I am out of the country in Singapore now, and the fax number here is (65) 773-5647. Because of the time difference, I may not be able to send your fax back in time. Is there anyway that you can sign for us, through power of attorney? There must be some other way to solve this problem.

Dear Dr. Leong:

Regarding your patent applications entitled "Controlled Delivery of Therapeutic Agents by Insertable Medical Devices", we have yet to receive from you certain papers that must be signed by all inventors and filed with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office for both the U.S. application and the international application.

EXHIBITS F AND G

It is critical that we file these papers with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office by tomorrow, 14 September 2001. Specifically, your signature is needed on the Declaration for the U.S. application and the Assignment.

Please contact me via email or telephone as soon as possible. I would be happy to fax blank documents to you, if you do not have them.

If you choose to contact me via email, please reply to this email (jennrichking@hotmail.com), as Kenyon email is not functioning, due to the disaster in New York City.

Thank you.

Best regards,

Jennifer

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of One U.S. Dollar (U.S. $1.00) and other valuable consideration furnished by Assignee to us, receipt and sufficiency of which we hereby acknowledge, we hereby, without reservations:

1. Assign, transfer, and convey to Assignee the entire right, title, and interest in and to said inventions and discoveries, said applications for Letters Patent of the United States of America, any and all other applications for Letters Patent on said inventions and discoveries in whatsoever countries, including all divisional, renewal, substitute, continuation, international, foreign and Convention applications based in whole or in part upon said inventions or discoveries, or upon said applications, and any and all Letters Patent, reissues, and extensions of letters Patent granted for said inventions and discoveries or upon said applications, and every priority right that is or may be predicated upon or arise from said inventions, said discoveries, said applications, and said Letters Patent.

2. Authorize Assignee to file patent applications in any or all countries for any or all of said inventions and discoveries in our names or in the name of Assignee or otherwise as Assignee may deem advisable, under the International Convention or otherwise.

3. Authorize and request the Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks of the United States of America and the empowered officials of all other governments to issue or transfer all said Letters Patent to Assignee, as assignee of the entire right, title, and interest therein or otherwise as Assignee may direct.

4. Warrant that we have not knowingly conveyed to others any right in said inventions, discoveries, applications, or patents or any license to use the same or to make, use, or sell anything embodying or utilizing any of said inventions or discoveries; and that we have good right to assign the same to Assignee without encumbrance.

5. Bind my heirs, legal representatives, and assigns, as well as ourselves, to do, upon Assignee's request and at Assignee's expense, but without additional consideration to us or them, all acts reasonably serving to assure that the said inventions and discoveries, the said patent applications, and the said Letters Patent shall be held and enjoyed by Assignee as fully and entirely as the same could have been held and enjoyed by us, our heirs, legal representatives, and assigns if this assignment had not been made; and particularly to execute and deliver to Assignee all lawful application documents including petitions, specifications, and oaths, and all assignments, disclaimers, and lawful affidavits in form and substance as may be requested by Assignee; to communicate to Assignee all facts known to us relating to said inventions and discoveries or the history thereof; and to furnish Assignee with any and all documents, photographs, models, samples, and other physical exhibits in our control or in the control of our heirs, legal representatives, or assigns which may be useful for establishing the facts of our conceptions, disclosures, and reduction to practice of said inventions and discoveries.

Dear Dr. Leong:

I apologize for any inconvenience that this may have caused you. Although we have received a signed PCT power of attorney and a signed U.S. power of attorney from you, we have not received a signed Declaration or Assignment.

We must file the signed Declaration in the U.S. PTO today, 14 September 2001, Eastern Daylight Time. It is now 8:30 AM here.

I have enclosed herewith the documents on which we need your signature.

Regarding the Declaration, please note that the block for your signature is on the third page. Regarding both the Assignment and the Declaration, please also enter your citizenship in the appropriate spaces, located in your signature area on page three of the Declaration and on page one of the Assignment.

Please execute the Declaration and Assignment and fax them to me at 202-220-4201 as soon as possible. I appreciate your assistance in this matter.

Best regards.
